I am the legal assistant to Donald Kempster. Mr. Sakine has recently retained our office to represent him in his immigration case. Attached is form G-28.

Mr. Sakine was present for his adjustment of status interview on March 30, 2005. He was told by the officer that he would receive a written response by mail. To date, he has not received any response.

Please review your files, note our appearance in this matter and provide us with updated status of Mr. Sakine's I-485 application. If possible, please send the approval notice to our office.

Thank you.

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

Thank you for your e-mail to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). The following response is provided for your information/action.

Our records indicate that your client's case is under further review by the adjudicating officer. All evidence submitted by Mr. Sakine in support of his application for adjustment of status is being examined.

Cases may require additional review for a variety of reasons. When it is in the interest of upholding the United States immigration laws both in terms of enforcement and rights to privacy, that information may not be disclosed. It is difficult to predict when this review will be completed. Every effort is being made to render an accurate and final decision in a timely manner. We ask that your client allow at least 90 days for a response before inquiring again.

We thank you for your understanding and patience.

Sincerely,

L [REDACTED]

Re: Ahmed Mohammed Sakine, A98 069 406

Dear Senator Durbin,

Our records indicate that your case is under further review by the adjudicating officer along with the assistance of other agencies pertaining to the bonafides of the documented evidence you submitted in support of your application and/or petition for the immigration benefit you are seeking to obtain. Cases are referred for additional review for a variety of reasons, therefore it is difficult to predict with accuracy when this review will be completed. Every effort is being made to render a final decision in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

Ruth A. Dorochoff
District Director
